Ex-Home Run Hitter of Phoenix Team Brings
Word of Lavish Preparations At Ray and Hayden;
Some Baseball Chatter

Baseball will be distinctly on the map in the copper camps, this season, according to "Haps" Clow, one-time famous home run hitter of the Phoenix ball club, and now located at Superior, Clow is in town on business and brings word of lavish preparations for the season in Ray and Hayden.

Superior can't quite cut the speed that the other, bigger camps will display, but it will probably have some sort of a ball team.

Over at Ray, Herb Hester, is spending money and building up a team that will be a bird. Clow said it is commonly reported that Delbi, the twirler from the Coast League is getting $200 a month, and that other salaries are in proportion.

Hayden, with its two teams, the Millers and Smelters, is warming up to baseball in the same way. Wages are high and money plentiful among the miners. With the backing of the company, baseball is sure to be a big success, at least on a playing standpoint. Evidently, the Ray Co. believes in the humanizing influence of the great American game, just as did Uncle Sam when he promoted baseball among the like brown men of the canal zone and the Philippines.

With three teams in Phoenix, one each in Mesa, Tempe and Glendale, the valley ought to see some good ball this summer. Now that the White Sox have their organization, the Gullfaws are going to get suits and be a regular team. A game has been arranged between Mesa and the Outlaws on the Mesa lot next Sunday.

L. A. Talbott, Box 215, Clarkdale, Arizona, writes that the Clarkdale ball team is out after the scalps of everybody that looks like a ball player. The enthusiasm is high. A new team has been organized, and it will be in shape to meet all comers, soon. Manager Talbott extends a challenge to Phoenix and other teams hereabout.

Arrangements have been made to league games for The Republican.

AN ANONYMOUS ASSASSIN

[Republic A. P. Leased Wire]
BOULDER, April 26.—The task of completing the jury continued today in the trial of Edward C. Dickens, on trial in the district court for the murder of his father, William H. Dickens, who was shot and killed at his home in Longmont, November 29 last.

More than 100 prospective jurors have been examined and excused for cause since the trial began Monday. The prosecution thus far has exercised three peremptory challenges and the defense two.

Jacob S. Schey, attorney for the defendant, today made public an anonymous letter, asserting the writer had fired the shot which killed the banker.
